FIVE DOLLARS REWARD.

WILL PAY THE ABOVE REWARD FOR THE DELIVERY TO ME AT MY RESIDENCE IN RALEIGH, of my negro boy JOHN, who ran away from me on Monday last. He is about 25 years old, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, rather spare made, very black, very quick when spoken to, and has a down look when spoken to. He is known to have a wife at the Governor's House, in Raleigh, and will probably try to make his way to that place if not apprehended before. I will also pay the above reward for his delivery to me at the Yankee Camp, in any part of Craven county, or at Camp Gregg, near Kinston, Lenoir county, or at Camp Mangum, Orange county. He has, when he left, a pass from Capt. Cole, A. C. S., Raleigh, to Kinston, with a number of blank passes in his possession, which he has probably filled up with forged names. He has also a pass from Capt. Cole, A. C. S., Raleigh, to Kinston, dated January 31st, 1863, which he has probably altered to suit himself. He is a valuable servant, and I am anxious to get him back.

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.
NEW SERIES.

IT IS CONTEMPLATED TO RESUME THE PUBlication of the North-Carolina Christian Advocate at an early day, under the patronage of the North-Carolina Conference, and under the direction and ownership of a joint stock Company, composed of ministers and laymen, to secure its permanency.
It will be as its name imports, a CHRISTIAN Advocate.—It will sustain and defend the doctrines and discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and labor to advance Christ's Kingdom on earth, and to promote peace and good will among all men.
Besides its distinct, religious character, it shall be an advocate of the moral, educational and industrial progress of North Carolina—a welcome visitor to every family and to the camps of our brave soldiers, and a faithful chronicler of what may be useful and interesting, and of the current news.
All the traveling and local ministers and the stockholders of the Company, are specially requested to act as Agents for the paper.
The old subscribers of the Advocate will be supplied with the new series, to the full amount due them at the time of its suspension, but as the mail books are not in the possession of the Editor, he must rely on the old subscribers themselves and the Agents, to furnish him with their names and post offices and the amount due them.
The Advocate will be well printed on good paper, and will contain an amount of reading matter equal to any paper in the State.
During the continuance of war prices, the subscription price will be $3 per annum, always in advance.
Agents who send us ten or more new subscribers and the cash, will be entitled to a copy of the paper for one year. It is desirable that a large list be sent at once.
Address WM. E. PELL, Editor.
